Our exclusive Schatzalp Lodges

Villa Guarda

The Villa Guarda with 235 sqm exclusive residential area and only 50 meters from the Art Nouveau Hotel Schatzalp away, in the middle of a 116 acres impressive forest park, is embossed by unique view of the Davos mountains. Here the quietness is still bigger and the nature more beautiful.

The Villa Guarda was built in 1907 and already mentioned in Thomas Mann's 'Magic Mountain' as 'the doctor's house'. The standard is high. An extravagant suite, a saloon and a bureau-fumoir guarantee dreamful holidays or important meetings. The thoughts are free - the horizon is far away. The charm of the old villa remains, whereas the establishment of the infrastructure appears in modern design. Two bedrooms, one of them with a huge window front, offer accommodation for 4 persons. One saloon divided into two big rooms, a massive table for at least 12 people, sitting area with fireplace, "Arvenstübli" with a large window front overlooking the forest. As well as comfortable interior the villa offers modern entertainment equipment just like flat screens in each room, free wireless LAN internet access and a desktop computer.

The half-board will be served in the Art Nouveaux Dining Room or on some days in the Panorama Restaurant. For a separate charge we will offer a private butler service in the villa as well.

Chalet

Once the oldest building at the Schatzalp it was rebuilt in 2008. The habitable surface of more than 220 sqm offers an exclusive accommodation for 6 persons with a wonderful view of the alpine surrounding. The interior is high levelled with two double-rooms and ensuite bathroom and one double-room with a bunk bed and private bathroom as well. The kitchen and the living room are well furnished with modern entertainment equipments just like flat screens in each rooms, DVD entertainment system in the living room and free wireless LAN in the whole chalet. The half-board will be served in the Art Nouveaux Dining Room or on some days in the Panorama Restaurant. For a separate charge we will offer a private butler service in the chalet as well.
